

Son of Babylon

Bloodbound

Burning inside my soul turn to pieces
I try to hold on for my life
I'm staying alive the feeling of dying
Is scaring me out of control
Praying for the night
To give me shelter from the storm
In shadows of my past
I'm all alone
I'm the son of Babylon
And I'm on the run
Hell is calling now my time has come
Sanctified by the holy grail
The screaming sounds of the sirens wail
Falling apart a demon inside of me
Tearing my soul to the core
It's breaking my heart a voice deep within
Calling saying I'm dying again
Praying for the night
To give me shelter from the storm
In shadows of my past
I'm all alone
I'm the son of Babylon
And I'm on the run
Hell is calling now my time has come
Sanctified by the holy grail
