One Second

Bloodflowerz

I close my eyes Listen to a soft song An ancient melody Of strange mystery

With your deep blue glance I venture a close dance Come deep inside Not just this night

One second

In confusion by a flash In the cycle of life and of death Cannot stop the flood paving the way of my fate We are the blood, we are of the clay Are you the god saving my day We cannot stop the flood, the way of our fate

Love's rising Brighter than all stars can Higher than dragons fly But virgins are shy

In one second All can change Rearrange Wake up the sleeper And touch me deeper
