Hurts Like Hell

Bloodpit

Let someone near and reveal yourself
You'll forget how to be on your own
Having someone to love you easily forget who you are
It's never easy having mixed emotions when it's all clear

Seems I never have enough time for you
I'm physically there but running away from myself
Having someone like you I easily misread you
It's never easy having mixed emotions when it's all clear

Please, don't look so sad
When you know it's time for me to go
Dry your eyes 'till
The next goodbye

Please hear what I say
'Cause if you cry I'll make it go away
I can only try and smile

Room full of people get outta here
I kow the manner I know the rate
I'm not in the mood for showing off
So all of you dead stars now get out!
