

The Beginning of A Fire

Bloodpit

Again you see yourself between life and death
Feeling doomed, your soul consumed by the last breath Don't lose the light in your eyes, trying to find salvation
Yet I see them burning for revenge refrain:

It's your storm to fight
Save your soul into the light of the desire
Can you let your soul begin a fire?

Save your soul, save your soul or the hell will embrace you Need three words to feel alive, in the end they'll take you
Under to the darkest place, down the spiral
Every story does not end so well

She'll be way down (3x) She'll be way down waiting refrain (2x)
