

Welcome to the horror show

Bloody Hammers

The manic priest is waiting but my head is saying it's alright, it's ok

Everything is wrong so why behave

The manic priest is waiting but inside you

It's alright it's ok

Shock and shame is so far out of date

Blame is left on all of you to load your guns and tell the truth

Leave me here

Burning with you

Blame is left on all of you to load your guns and tell the truth

Leave me here

Burning with you

Welcome to the horror show

Once you're in you cannot be let go

And if you ever try again just so you know

I'll be here

I'll be watching you

Inside your horror show

The frantic saint is pacing while your heart is racing

For the end of the strange conversations with a dying age

The frantic saint is pacing but inside you

It's alright it's ok

Shock and shame is so far out of range

Answer me I need to know

Who's the one that you will love

Who's the one who'll see you're never left alone
