

Four Seasons

Blue Café

Your every lie
Your every smile
How can you be so blind
And now it cuts me like a knife
I cannot recognize your love

Bring me to life
Don't let me die

Can you
Wake me up inside
Make me feel alive
Guide me through the dark

Bring me to life
Bring me to life now!

All of your hate
All of my pain
How can you really be so blind
Don't break my heart
I cannot breathe without your love

Another lie
I'm burning inside
Bring back my life
Save me, I'm on the edge
Don't let me fall
Can you still hear my voice
My scream
