

Part Of My Soul

Blue Café

And now you remain my pleasure, my pain
You have the music inside
Now you remain my pleasure, my pain
You're everything in my life

When I see your smile I realise that I believe (oooo)
You are all I need, you make my life complete
And I believe...

Now you remain my pleasure, my pain
You have the music inside
Now you remain my pleasure, my pain
You're everything in my life

When I'm feelin' love and all alone
You still believe in me
You're the reason why I can see the light
And I believe

You are always there for me,
You are so incredible,
You are so wonderful
With every day I give you more

And now you remain my pleasure, my pain
You have the music inside
Now you remain my pleasure, my pain
You're everything in my life

You're my lesson now and I'm so proud
That I can learn from you
You inspire me in every single way so I believe

I feel so high and so alive, is it like a drink of love (aaaa)
You have the light so deep inside
I'm sure that you're a part of my soul

And now you remain my pleasure, my pain
You have the music inside
Now you remain my pleasure, my pain
You're everything in my life

Now you remain my pleasure, my pain
You have the music inside
Now you remain my pleasure, my pain
