

Seven Days

Blue Café

You never lie I see it in your eyes
You never cry, when my whole world is falling.
You have to know, I feel your wonderful
Cause when I'm lost, you show me where I'm going

Seven days, you never say I'm sorry
Seven days, but there's no need to worry
Seven days, I need to read a story
Seven days....

We never lie, they see it in your eyes
We never cry, when our world is falling
You have to know, with you I'm not alone
And when your'e gone, I feel my love is growing

Seven days, you never say I'm sorry
Seven days, but there's no need to worry
Seven days, I need to read a story
Seven days....

I feel so expired
My soul Is on the fire
I feel so expired
Your'e taking me higher and sooo....

Seven days, you never say I'm sorry
Seven days, but there's no need to worry
Seven days, I need to read a story
Seven days....

You never lie I see it in your eyes
You never cry, when my our world is falling.
You have to know, I feel your wonderful
Cause when I'm lost, you show me where I'm going

Seven days, you never say I'm sorry
Seven days, but there's no need to worry
Seven days, I need to read a story
Seven days....

I feel so expired
My soul Is on the fire
I feel so expired
Your'e taking me higher and sooo....

Seven days, you never say I'm sorry
Seven days, but there's no need's to worry
Seven days, I need to read a story
Seven days.... x2
