

The Honesty

Blue October

Let's get it straight Let's get it straight from the top You're beginning with the usual main ingredient You're good at talking when you say it Are you meaning it?
Don't wanna give you my heart if you're not completing it

I'm blown away at how your family, your friends, Just accept it though
No one's ever told you no Can't expect you to know how to love
When it was something You were never taught

But honesty
is the one true way to start again just be good to yourself and love those unspoken instead of always broken
but honestly
when you're heart decides to let someone in just be cautious of the next one

You win
I never wanted to play what was meant to screw me up but I see you're in to playing it makes me feel sorry for the way you like displaying it and how the truth has really told you are betraying it

I gotta say
I don't think I ever felt you hold us up were you embarrassed by me? its something I'm gonna have to pay for

But honesty
shoulda been the one true way to start again just be straight with yourself and love goes unspoken
instead of always broken
but honestly
if your heart decides to feel again just be careful of the next one

How completely let down how completely let down I felt how completely in awe now I can't see at all

Now I can see it all...

But honesty
could been the one true way to love again
just be straight with yourself
and love goes unspoken
but honestly
if your heart decides to love again just be thankful for the next one

Gonna see it all...gonna see it all...
gonna keep it up...gonna keep it up...
gonna keep it up
