Divine Wind

Blue Öyster Cult

Blood of bat, tail of newt Wing of metal, bone of steel Vial of health, flask of pain Staff of life or poison rain

If he really thinks we're the devil Then let's send him to hell

Fast food, fast cars
Fast women, movie stars
Time of trouble, time of trial
Turn to memphis, pray awhile

If he really thinks we're the devil Then let's send him to hell

Anxious mothers, bums in the street Jackals in waistcoats, men in sheets Purple mountains, waves of grain Grace of god, thy will be done

If he really thinks we're the devil Then let's send him to hell
