

5 Will Get You Six

Blue Rodeo

Pointy two tones, echo down the street,
The street, the street, the street, the street, Woaho.
Shiny buckles, jangle to the beat, the
Beat, the beat, the beat, the beat, Woaho.
Hair just right, he knows he's lookin'
Cool tonight.
He hopes he finds her in the neon light...

Insurrection acts just like a prayer.
Bad intentions, collar turned against the wind.
It's such a simple twist you just flick the switch.
It's so easy to forget a life like this, a life like this.

He doesn't care he's had a taste
It's such a simple contortion
No easy solution
It's an act of faith.

Still 5 will get you six, if you play the dice right.
5'll get you six if you play the dice right...
5'll get you six if you play the dice right...
5 will get you six boy

Insurrection acts just like a prayer.
Bad intentions, collar turned against the wind.
It's such a simple twist you just flick the switch.
It's so easy to forget a life like this, a life like this.

He doesn't care he's had a taste

Still 5 will get you six, if you play the dice right.
5'll get you six if you play the dice right...

5'll get you six boy
5'll get you six boy
5'll get you six boy
5'll get you six boy
