

Paradise

Blue Rodeo

For all the wounds that never heal
For all the times you were a rebel
For this one night,
Let's not ask the price
You have to pay,
To stay in paradise

So throw another log on the fire
Your sympathy my desire
We'll watch the sparks fly
High into the sky
We'll see the lights of paradise

We'll watch the sparks fly
High into the sky
We'll see the lights of paradise

I was born to wander
And every dollar I made I squandered
But the greatest misery
Is know I'll have to leave
Leave these lights of paradise

AH sweet oblivion
To sing and dance with the innocent
When I'm on my deathbed
Taking my last breath
Will i have paid the price
To stay in paradise

When I'm on my deathbed
Taking my last breath
Will I have paid the price
To stay in paradise
