

Rain Down On Me

Blue Rodeo

Well you never need forgiveness left home at seventeen raised up on hate to a life that's second rate...
I've seen that look before behind some closing door

You couldn't be delivered just won't be denied too much a child Confident and wild... nobody taught you how to live what to keep and what to give

Oh now she talks to strangers who bring her flowers for her hair but every night you count on me to get you out the door Oh then you smile and watch me lose control

Rain on me
oh rain down on me
oh rain down on me
I used to think I knew what I was waiting for I don't think that anymore

Didn't know what to bring you don't seem to need too much at all no pearls and chains and nobody's sad refrains Everytime I wonder why think back to the kindness in your eyes

Now everybody wants you bring you flowers for your hair
but every night you count on me to peel you off the wall Oh then you smile and watch me lose control

Rain on me
what I was fighting for Oh I don't think that anymore
