

So Hard to See

Blue Rodeo

Come down and show me your face
I'm wrapped up in worry and I'm tired of this place
This city's too much it'll bleed you dry
Nothing ever changes as the days go by

I wake up every day knowing there's a better way
Lord and I believe it's going to come
Still no comfort comes to me
Lying where we used to be
Wondering what have I done

I'm waiting and I'm waiting and I don't know what to do
I'm keeping my heart open hoping for you
You're just like the sun sinking over the sea
No matter how I try to hold you still, honey you're so hard to see

Every night there are voices in the street
There are ghosts on every corner here rising in the heat
I've walked through all the neighbourhoods and I've been in every bar
But I see you in the shadows and in every passing car

I used to follow you, weaving in and out of view
You moved me like a new morning sun
Lately I've been swept away, drag myself through every day
Wondering where have you gone

I'm waiting and I'm waiting and I don't know what to do
I'm keeping my head up for glimpses of you
You're page after page written so beautifully
No matter how I try to hold you still, honey you're so hard to see

I used to follow you, weaving in and out of view
You moved me like a new morning sun
Lately I've been swept away, drag myself through every day
Wondering where have you gone

I'm waiting and I'm waiting and I don't know what to do
I'm keeping my heart open, hoping for you
You're just like the wind and a soft melody
No matter how I try to hold you still, honey you're so hard to see
