

Tara's Blues

Blue Rodeo

What am I going to do
With all these blues
What am I going to do
If this old world weren't so cruel
I'd give them all back to you
I'd give them all back to you

'Cause now you've found someone new
He's holding you the way I used to
He's holding you

It came as no surprise
I could see it in your eyes
Still what am I supposed to do
With all these blues
What am I going to do?
With all these blues

I'm so tired but I can't sleep
I can't do anything I'm not complete
No, I can't believe

I curse the day I saw your face
But still each night I lie awake and I pray
That you'll come home to these loving arms

It came as no surprise
I could see it in your eyes
Still what am I supposed to do
With all these blues
What am I supposed to do?
What am I going to do?
What am I going to do?
With all these blues
