

This one's for sadness
These are for pain
And here are the words
You can't get back again
Well I'm holding a picture
Of you on your lawn
Smiling like an angel
The fortunate one

Well it's alright now
People get through this somehow
It's alright now
We will keep moving I know
If you remember cause I do

When the fever was breaking
I was sweat soaked and frail
I dreamed I was
Stephen Truscott a child in jail
And when I awoke
And I felt your cool breeze
I wept like an ocean
Sweet tears of relief

Well it's alright now
People get through this somehow
It's alright now
We will keep moving I know
If you remember cause I do
