

You're Everywhere

Blue Rodeo

Yeah I gave you my heart and I gave you my soul
That's not enough you want more
Like the writing on an ancient wall
You're a mystery that I'll never solve

Yeah you're everywhere
Yeah you're everywhere
Yeah you're everywhere but you're just not there for me
For me

Well I've walked along the red canal of mars
I've known kings and king makers
Poets painters and paupers
I've danced danced on the rings of saturn
Still your pilgrim soul is the only thing that ever mattered

Yeah you're everywhere
Yeah you're everywhere
Yeah you're everywhere but you're just not there for me
For me

Rock it!
Yeah this old world ain't always what it seems
Sometimes I feel I'm living in someone else's dream
There's a face I know that I've never seen
Still a hundred million miles
Ten thousand years
Ain't going to change a thing

Yeah you're everywhere
Yeah you're everywhere
Yeah you're everywhere but you're just not there for me
For me
Yeah you're everywhere but you're just not there for me
For me
Yeah you're everywhere but you're just not there for me
