

Doubt

Blue Stahlí

You'll know when this is done
If you comprehend
The calculated hate in subtlety

So know that I'm the one come to bring the end poisoning your safety

Deep down inside you
Too far to undo
When all your confidence dies

You feel it burning Twisting and turning
i hope this eats you alive

I've come to plant the seed of gradual decay swallowing your faith entirely

I'm watching as it feeds on insecurity
leaving you with nothing

Deep down inside you
Too far to undo
When all your confidence dies

You feel it burning
Twisting and turning
I hope this eats you alive

Self-sycophant
Grotesque arrogance
Bursting with shallow conceit

Pushing this through The weakness in you infecting you with this disease
