No Goodbyes

Yeah no more tears, no more goodbyes

Don't you know it's time for me to go Even though it hurts to see you cry But don't you know you'll never be alone If you hold me deep inside (oh yeah)

You know that Iwould rather stay But now before I turn away There's one last thing to you I want to say

Baby there's no goodbyes I'll always be right by your side I may be far away You know that my heart will stay, with you, always

Now I've pictures in the distance Even though it seems a million miles But there'll be no space between us I'll be there everytime you close you eyes. Yes I will (oh)

You know that I would rather stay But now before I turn away There's one last thing to you I want to say

Baby there's no goodbyes I'll always be right by your side I may be far away You know that my heart will stay, with you, always

I don't wanna say words that people say Cos when I go, my love will stay

In the heart of you to help you make it trough Baby that is why there can be no. No goodbyes

(2x): Baby there's no goodbyes I'll always be right by your side I may be far away You know that my heart will stay, with you, always

You know what no more goodbyes
