

You're the Only One

Blue

I'm going back to the day we parted
And all the ways you were broken-hearted
I take a trip every day in my mind
I see your face, I recall a few words
It's playing back like a broken record
I remember every tear in your eyes

If I knew what I know
I'd walk back in time
I would right every wrong
I would change every line
Then you'd be here right now
Just like yesterday
But you'd feel no more doubt
When you hear me say

You're the only one I want
You're the only one I need in my life
You're the only one I love
You're the only one I need in my life

I see the world through a haze of memories
Other girls don't mean a damn thing to me
It's kind of sad how they just don't compare
Time will tell, let's wait and see
If the love we have was meant to be Cause I know we've got a future out there

Cause you're still my girl
I don't care what they say
Let's go back to our world
Baby, don't you throw this love away
Cause I still believe
In the magic of us
It's just a matter of time
And it's a matter of trust

You're the only one I want
You're the only one I need in my life
You're the only one I love
You're the only one I need in my life

Now girl it took some time
To get real with myself
Now love ain't easy sometimes
But when you find it, let's stay together

You're the only one I want
You're the only one I need in my life
You're the only one I love
You're the only one I need in my life

You're the only one I want
You're the only one I need in my life
You're the only one I love
You're the only one I need in my life
