

Alone

Blues Traveler

I said "I love you"
she began to cry
she said she needed a friend I said "I'll try"
soon we'd say nothing
somehow I never wondered why You see, she left me
she left me
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'd loved her always
she didn't know
I tried patience
let a friendship grow
I tried to keep her
that's what made her go
You see, she left me
she left me
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
Beauty and the beast
was how it seemed to be a love like hers
ain't meant for guys like me
some call me crazy
some politely call me free
but either way you see
You see, she left me
she left me
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm trying to forget you but it just won't work think I'm losing my mind, think I'm going berserk I love you with a passion that you just don't know and I kinda wish right now that I was telling you so I could rant, or rave, or play some little game but when I look into your eyes, it all seems the same that you weren't meant for me and that's a sad but true fact now I don't care how I look and don't care how I act
'cause you set me free
I'm a man among men but when I think of what I missed it starts all again Now alone in the darkness of each new day my heart is on its own I wanna rip it from my chest and throw it away watch this bassman take me home
A low branch touching the water
feels the currents take a mighty
river bends her

but she won't break
no she won't
no she won't break
I said a candle's
flame she dances
when a sudden tempest blows
she dwindles and dims
against the cold, cold wind and then she grows
and then she glows
I said she grows
I may never understand her her secret is not to know nothing for me to do with or for or to but I just love to watch her grow
I said I love to watch her grow
I guess some day
love will soon be here
and maybe then I'll see things more clear
I guess I got excited cause it felt so near
and
You see, she left me
she left me
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
But I know I'd give my life
just to hold her now
and who knows
I might see her around Hopes can always go up tears can only come down
You see, she left me
she left me
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
I'm alone
