

Cover Me

Blues Traveler

A question never dies
Please enlighten me
Sand upon your skin
It softens me
The sun is shining in your eyes
It frightens me
Always are clear
Will you cover me
Just cover me
Just cover me

And I just can't find
That puzzle piece
My picture's got a hole
Right next to me

Oh the taste it leaves
Can always change
Just keep your tongue in cheek
With all your friends
You spend your days
Don't you forget about me
Don't forget about me

And I just can't find
That puzzle piece
My picture's got a hole
Right next to me

There's a hole in my heart that is tattered and torn now
And if a question won't die it leaves an answer unborn now
And a question remains that I'm dying to see
Will you cover me

And I just can't find
That puzzle piece
My picture's got a hole
Right next to me
And I just can't find
That puzzle piece
My picture's got a hole
Right next to me
