

Nobody Fall In Love With Me

Blues Traveler

Nobody fall in love with me
Nobody fall in love with me
It ain't gonna end well
Just you wait and see
Nobody fall in love with me

Nobody take a word to heart
Nobody take my words to heart
Without a grain of salt
What I say falls apart
Don't take my tender words to heart

Because I've run for the cover and protection of the trees
Only to sneak away beneath the goddess moon is my disease
And I'll hold the line all summer before I freeze into next spring
Effortlessly busy 'til I just can't feel a thing
So don't you fall in love with me

And don't expect an answer when you call
You can't expect an answer when you call
Anticipation lingers before your hope begins to fall
Best not to call, in fact, at all

Because I've run for the cover and protection of the trees
Only to sneak away beneath the goddess moon is my disease
And I'll hold the line all summer before I freeze into next spring
Effortlessly busy 'til I just can't feel a thing
No don't you fall in love with me

Because I've run for the cover and protection of the trees
Only to sneak away beneath the goddess moon is my disease
And I'll hold the line all summer before I freeze into next spring
Effortlessly busy 'til I just can't feel a thing
So don't you fall in love with me
