

Recognize My Friend

Blues Traveler

I
Look back on this life
And it doesn't seem right
That I'm standing here today
So many times
I thought I would die
But always something
Stood in my way

Save me again
From doing myself in
Give me another
Wake up call
The lessons we've learned
How soon we return
And so now I'm headed for another fall
From grace into danger
Mysterious stranger
Guardian angel above all

When we meet again
Right there and then
I hope you realize my friend
When my time is up
And my spirit ascends
I hope I recognize my friend

My friend
Does that even define
Though I know that you're mine
Somehow the words just seem so small
And you are so far
And I am so high
And now I'm ready for another fall
From grace into danger
Mysterious stranger

When we meet again, right there and then
I hope you realize, my friend
When my time is up, and my spirit ascends
I hope I recognize my friend

When we meet again
Before it ends
I hope I recognize my friend
When we meet again, and the music comes in
I hope I recognize my friend
When we meet again, right there and then
I hope I recognize my friend
When we meet again, from now until then
I hope I recognize my friend

When we meet again, before it ends
I hope I recognize my friend
When we meet again, from now until then

When we meet again, before it ends
I hope I recognize my friend
When we meet again, from now until then
I hope I recognize my friend
When we meet again, before it ends
I hope I recognize my friend
