Insensitive World

Blutengel

We're walking through the empty roads Guided by the painful lights And we're not hiding from the rain We sing the song of silence

We can hear your voices but we don't understand How you can live in this insensitive world We feel like strangers in a foreign land And we don't wanna be part of this misery

We haven't found the answers To all the questions in our mind So we keep on searching For the meaning of our life

We can hear your voices but we don't understand How you can live in this insensitive world We feel like strangers in a foreign land And we don't wanna be part of this misery

We sing the song of silence
