

Love Killer

Blutengel

I'm running through the night with naked feet
The Moon shines bright and I can hear your screams
You're hunting me, you want me back
But I will escape and I try to hide

You're always hurting me and I can't stand
The ignorance in your eyes
I don't know how, I can't explain
The pain arise day by day

Why do you always do what you want?
You never ask for me, don't know my fears
Can't you understand the words I say to you?
Just keep your distance and don't touch me

Just run away out of my dreams...

Please my Angel, come to me
I will take you on the road
To a kingdom without fear
(Don't put your spell on me!)
Don't be afraid, don't hesitate
I'm everything you ever need
And I'm always here with you
(Please leave me alone!)
