

My Saviour

Blutengel

Rain is falling down the streets are cold and empty I'm on my way to another nightmare I'm searching for salvation I don't know where to hide

I want you to be my saviour you can break this cage of ice you're the only one to save me
I can see it in your eyes
I want you to be my saviour
take me to eternity
you're an angel without wings only you can set me free

I see all these empty faces no feelings in their eyes no one cares about the pain I'm helpless like a child so I try to close my eyes and I lay myself to sleep I wish that I could sleep forever touched by the hand of death

I want you to save me
save me from this pain please my little angel
don't let me die again

save me from this pain
please do not forsake me
don't let me die again

take me to eternity
