

Nightfall

Blutengel

How do you dream when I cross the line?
How do you sleep when you hear my cry?
How do you feel when you taste my tears?
When I wave good-bye?
Good-Bye.

Who can say when the rain will fall and my night turns into the day?
Who can tell me reasons, reasons here to stay?

How do you dream when I cross the line?
How do you sleep when you hear my cry?
How do you feel when you taste my tears?
When I wave good-bye?
Good-Bye.

What does it taste like when you drink my tears?
Where do the stars lead me this night?
Will you remember my name and me when you are alone?
I say good-bye.

I am falling down - I wonder why
I am falling down - and try to hide
I am falling down - like a cried tear
I am falling down - 'cos you are not here
I am falling down - you have lost your way
I am falling down - I try to stay
I am falling down - 'till the end of time
I am falling down - in this endless night
