

Promised Land

Blutengel

We are sailing on this ocean of hate we feel a thunderstorm in our souls we destroyed all the things that we once build but a shattered memory is still remain

We are serching for the promised land a land where we can settle down
the land we heard about in fairy tales

We will never reach the shore we had it all but we wanted more our ship is sinkin' we lost the game and we're the only ones to blame

We are sailing on this ocean of hate
we feel a thunderstorm in our souls
we destroyed all the things that we once build
