

Pure Life

Blutengel

I have been listening
To myself
To my heart
And the voices in my head going on

Now, I know what I want
I go out
To catch my fantasy

I have seen you at the end of this night
You were brilliant and you were beautiful
I want to feel your body
I want to feel your soul
More than you will ever know.

I have seen you at the end of this night
You were brilliant and you were beautiful
For whatever it is worth: I will love you!
More than you will ever know.

Pitch black lust
Burning desires
Separated from reality

I want you so much
Your beating heart
Your pulsing breath on my skin
On my skin

Pure life
Pure lust
Pure life
Pure

Pure life
Pure lust
Pure lust
Pure

I have seen you at the end of this night
You were brilliant and you were beautiful
I want to feel your body
I want to feel your soul
More than you will ever know.

I have seen you at the end of this night
You were brilliant and you were beautiful
For whatever it is worth: I will love you!
More than you will ever, never ever, know.
