

Say Something

Blutengel

The black roses for my bloody mistress
I give you everything you need,
You can treat me like you want to
I will never deny you anything.
I sacrifice my whole life to you
I do everything you want
I will never disagree with you
as long as you stands by my side.
I know you are my perfect goddess
And you know you hurt my soul,
I want escape with you forever!

Say something.
Say something.
Say something.
Just say something to me.
Say something.
Say something.
Just say something that I wanna hear.

The black roses for my bloody mistress,
My whole life lies in you hands,
You will never disappoint me,
You are my queen of justice.
Your body is perfection,
But your mind is full of doubts
Behind your world of purity
You are weak like a child.

Say something.
Say something.
Say something.
Just say something to me.
Say something.
Say something.
Just say something that i wanna hear.

I'm in love with the devil in a female disguise!
I'm in love with the devil in a female disguise!
I'm in love!
Say something.
Say something...
(With the devil in a female disguise!)

Say something.
Say something.
Say something.
Just say something to me.
