

Scars

Blutengel

I see you dancing
Dancing in the rain
And singing a sad song
You keep your eyes closed
You don't wanna see anyone
And she do not notice me

There are pictures in your head
There are so many scars on your skin

Please don't lose yourself
Just keep on the fight
There are so many things one's fighting for
Please don't lose yourself
I know it hurts but it's ok
I'm standing by your side
And I will hold you tight

I hear you crying
Crying every night
Listening to sad songs
You don't wanna speak to me
You don't wanna leave your room
You hide all the problems deep inside

Please don't lose yourself
Just keep on the fight
There are so many things one's fighting for
Please don't lose yourself
I know it hurts but it's OK
I'm standing by your side
And I will hold you tight
