

Secret Places

Blutengel

I will follow him - I will follow him

I'm lost in thoughts while I am walking through the rain.
I cannot grasp what has happened in the past.
I feel this coldness deep inside my lonely life.
But I can see a face, those healthy eyes, a heart that will save
e my soul.

I will follow him - I will follow him

He is the saviour of my broken heart
I feel salvation by his side
But when the day is gone
And the night has come
I wish that he'll never let me go.

He is the saviour of my dying soul,
I see a bright light in his eyes.
He takes my hand and says:
Free your mind
And follow me into my world (into my world).

It's a new dawn and all my nightmares are far away.
I open my eyes and feel a warm breeze on my skin.
And in the distance I hear a never ending call
He is my leader and I will follow him where ever he may go.

Show me places where I've never been before
Secret places where a light shall shine so bright
We'll leave the shadows behind when we'll fly away
This is the sign that I'm waiting for...
