

Time (There's Nothing More)

Blutengel

I'm down on my knee again,
hoping for a sign from you, come on.
We fought for this love so long,
but that was not enough for you to stay.

And in my dreams I wish that you would come back and befill my heart with pure love,
just pure love again.
But you walk on by, you close your eyes.
You don't want to listen to my heart.

Time, what is time
when two hearts are beating the same way?
Time, only time.
It was the reason why your feelings died,
Your feelings died.

It is time to say Goodbye
and finally let you leave my life.
Don't turn around.
It is hard, but I have no other choice.
There is no other chance to feel better again.

Time, what is time
when two hearts are beating the same way?
Time, only time.
It was the reason why your feelings died.
Your feelings died.

There's nothing ... more
