

Undone

Blutengel

I'm here all alone and 'm watching the sky
I don't want to die but I have to resign
I've lost the fight against destiny

I thought I could change the curse of time
But I was unable so I walked the line
Between good and evil from so many years...
I shed too much tears

Now I'm stranded here, disappointed and weak
I lost all my friends but their voices still speak
Of courage and hope
But I'm too tired to try
I'm living a lie

I wait for the rain
I wait for the dawn
I pray every night not to be alone
I wait for the morning that will never come
I am undone
