

Waste My Time

Blutengel

I feel like lonely soldier
In a dystopian world
Always fighting to survive another day

But I don't want fighting anymore
I'm tired of having to explain
Accept me like I am

It's too late to change my life
And I don't want to waste my time

I know I will not live forever
Life is too short
I've been doing it my way for so long
And I never regret anything I ever did

It's too late to change my life
And I don't want to waste my time
