

When I Feel You

Blutengel

I can't believe that I found you here.
Will my hopeless search end with you?
I am the end to all your fears.
I'm so afraid of losing you aga-ain.

But I will never let you down - again.
And I, I can never let you go - again.

|: When I feel you,
I know that I am the one for you.
When I need you,
I know that you are the one I've been searching so long. :|

I will never let you go again.
And I know you can't live without me - anymore.
I know without me you will die.
But you're so pretty when you cry.

Pretty when you cry.
Pretty when you cry.

But I will never let you down - again
And I, I can never let you go - again
