

War in heaven

Bob Catley

Woke up with no memories
Can't remember anything at all
Still hear voices from my dream
Seems like they are coming from the wall

I can hear the hungry ones
Screams turn my blood into ice
A haunting song that follows me
I wish that I could escape

It's not only the angels I hear
Someone else is gathering this night
I can feel that your demons are near
Preparing for eternal fight

When the stars are all gone
And we can't see the sun
And there's no more tears left to cry
Then we will know it's for real
There is a war, a war in heaven

I can see the hunter's eyes
Hunting for the last and lonely souls
The sky has never been this dark
The battle will soon begin

It's not only the angels I hear
Someone else is gathering this night
I can feel that your demons are near
Preparing for eternal fight

When the stars are all gone
And we can't see the sun
Then we will know it's for real
There is a war, a war in heaven

When we run out of lies
And we lose our disguise
And there's no place left where we can hide
Then we will know it's for real
There is a war, a war in heaven

A war in heaven

It's not only the angels I hear
Someone else is gathering this night
I can feel that your demons are near
Preparing for eternal fight

When the stars are all gone
And we can't see the sun
Then we will know it's for real
There is a war, a war in heaven

When we run out of lies

And we lose our disguise
And there's no place left where we can hide
Then we will know it's for real
There is a war, a war in heaven

A war in heaven
