I Don't Believe You (She Acts Like We Never Have Met)

Bob Dylan

I can't understand She let go of my hand An' left me here facing the wall I'd sure like to know Why she did go But I can't get close to her at all Though we kissed through the wild blazing nighttime She said she would never forget But now mornin's clear It's like ain't here She acts like we never have met.

It's all new to me Like some mystery It could even be like a myth But it's hard to think on That she's the same one That last night I was with From darkness, dreams're deserted Am I still dreamin' yet ? I wish she'd unlock Her voice once and talk 'Stead of acting like we never have met.

If she ain't feelin' well Then why don't she tell 'Stead of turnin' her back to my face Without any doubt She seems too far out For me to return to her chase Though her skirt it swayed as a guitar played Her mouth was watery and wet But now something has changed For she ain't the same She just acts like we never have met.

If I didn't have to guess
I'd gladly confess
To anything I might've tried
If I was with her too long
Or have done something wrong
I wish she'd tell me what it is, I'll run and hide
Though the night ran swirling and whirling
I remember her whispering yet
But evidently she don't
And evidently she won't
She did act like we never have met.

I'll leavin' today
I'll be on my way
Of this I can't say very much
But if you want me to
I can be just like you
And pretend that we never have touched
And if anybody asks me, "Is it easy to forget ?"
I'll say, "It's easily done
You just pick anyone

And pretend that you never have met".
