Maybe You'll Be There

Bob Dylan

Each time I see a crowd of people Just like a fool I stop and stare It's really not the proper thing to do But maybe you'll be there

I go out walking after midnight Along the lonely thoroughfare It's not the time or place to look for you But maybe you'll be there

You said your arms would always hold me You said your lips were mine alone to kiss Now after all those things you told me How can it end like this

Someday if all my prayers are answered I'll hear a footstep on the stair With anxious heart I'll hurry to the door And maybe you'll be there
