Spanish Is the Loving Tongue

Broke my heart, lost my soul Adios, mi corazon Spanish is the loving tongue Soft as music, light as spring It was a girl I learned it from Living down Sonora way Well, I don't look much like a lover Still I say her love words over Mostly when I'm all alone Mi amor, mi cora sole.

Haven't seen her since that night I can't cross the line you know They want me for a gamblin' fight Like as not it's better so Still I always kind of missed her Since that last sad night I kissed her Broke her heart, lost my own Adios, mi cora sole Broke her heart, lost my own Adios, mi cora sole Adios, mi cora sole Adios, mi cora sole. Bob Dylan
