I got home late last night about 8 There was nothing on the T.V. as usual Just the normal repeats and things I had the City Prices edition of the Evening Standard Which was not as good as the Late Night one Mainly because it doesn't have the full cinema listings To be more specific it doesn't have the Fulham ABC Which is my local So I walked over to Battersea Park Down by the Sri Chimnoy Mile Past the Peace Pagoda It's good You can have a personal religious experience And get healthy at the same time Which obviously is important for a busy man like me Well another moment in life's great adventure It's no small wonder

I hope you weren't offended by what happened last night It was the awkward hour And I didn't know what to do Whether ot come on or just leave it To be honest I wasn't that interested And I didn't think you were either So I went back to my place And you went back to yours And I got into bed And started reading a book By a guy called Tobias Woolf It's good it's short stories Just before you sleep he'll take You off to Burma....Mandalay Places like that I set the alarm clock ready for another day at work Another day in life's great adventure It's no small wonder
