

Who Colt the Game

Bob Marley & The Wailers

Who colt the game
Who colt the game
It's not natty dready
It must be bald heady
Somebody play the wrong domino
And want the world to flollow
Someone is fillin' their sack
In a completry? black
Who colt the game
A you colt the game
Why you play the bad card
Now we catch you off guard
Natty dread want to shuffle
Not lookin' for nothin' to scuffle now
Natty dread want to shuffle
Not lookin' for nothin' to scuffle now
Who colt the game
Who colt the game
One way in, one way out
Some a holler some a shout
Natty dread want to shuffle
Not lookin' for nothin' to scuffle now

Natty dread want to shuffle
Not lookin' for no-one to hassle now
You colt the game
Divided in
Why you play the bad card
Now we catch you off guard
Somebody play the wrong domino
And cause the rest to follow
Someoen is fillin' ya sack
Well it's a completry? black
Who colt the game
Who colt the game
Now bout to fill your sack
It's a completry black
Natty dread want to shuffle
Natty dread want to shout
Colt and colt
Colt and colt
Speak the truth and do it ever
Who colt the game
'cause once you did it you'll do it again
Who colt the game
