

Tokyo

Bob Schneider

I went where all the girls are beautiful
Golden hair and radiant smiles
Cocaine high
Oblivion to pain

It made me feel so inadequate
And insane for that feel good feelin'
High inside their helium, the trance made vapor
Feelin' grim and grimy

Oh, Tokyo's not far enough
Away to where I wanna be today

Lonely ain't a word with me
It's absurd you see in crowded rooms
That's where it hits me
Splits me right in half, out spills the emptiness

No one wants to talk with someone cut in two
And actin' werewolf crazy hairdooed out of control
Would you like some company?
No thanks, I've had my fill today

Tokyo's not far enough
Away to where I wanna be today
Oh no, Tokyo's not far enough
Away to where I wanna be today

Oh, I wanna ride this party off in the sunset
It's a mystery to see that girl over there with the beer and the queer
Lookin' so debonair
And she don't care about this

It's looking so good, feelin' so fine
Motherfucker that I'd be cold chillin' in the place
Taste yes I've got it any more
Got the cold dinty moore and dental damns
Irish ham and rocket jam

Oh, Tokyo's not far enough
Away to where I wanna be today
Oh no, Tokyo's not far enough
Away to where I wanna be today

I don my fake fur feather Boa, just like Noah
Not tiger skin enough, fuckin' mackin
The clones ain't got no style just wait a while
Turn the dial and see my face

With cuties gettin' so much booty
It be my duty to, to rock this fucker like Stan Getz
Get your paws off my cigarettes so
I smoke Sherman, you German lookin' vermin, you're squirmin' now

Tokyo's not far enough
Away to where I wanna be today
Oh no, Tokyo's not far enough

Away to where I wanna be today
Oh no, Tokyo's not far enough
Away to where I wanna be today
