Don't Wait Too Long

Bob Welch

Night after night, day after day The dream I keep havin' just won't stay away And it's you that's the star with the famous name Gettin' all that you wanted taken away

Two headed coin, the other side is gettin' strong And saying good things come to those who wait But don't wait too long...

Hold out a candle, look in my eyes You'll see a prisoner, just learnin' to lie How does it go? Just like a whisper on the wind And the voice that gets louder before it disappears again

Two headed coin, the other side is gettin' strong And saying good things come to those who wait But don't wait too long...

Now that your famous, now that you're rich You'd love to be young, but you can't find that switch You've come a long way, you've got nowhere to go 'Cause you've waited to long, and it's startin' to show
