

Easy To Fall

Bob Welch

Now, baby, I'm no stranger
So why do you act shy?
You've known me all my life just as a friend
But, suddenly, I know
That I'm seeing someone new
Can you feel the lover that I feel in you?

Yeah, you're easy to love
It's good to know that we could fall
Yeah, so easy to love
Well, don't say no, just let it fall
Yeah, so easy to love
Don't say no, just let it fall

Now, baby, don't be anxious
I'm gonna treat you right
Just think of all the time we've been alone
I know it's different now; I'm not used to touching you
So pretend we're strangers
And do what strangers do
