

Which One Is To Blame?

Bobby Bare

I wonder which one of us is to blame?

The nicest thing that's come my way is you
But I cannot offer you my heart or name
Oh, it isn't fair to do me like you do
I wonder which one of us is to blame?

Somehow I can't blame myself
Although I guess I should
And I can't place the blame on you
I would have if I could.

We've made ourselves the gossip of the town
The things we've done can only bring us shame
We've let our passion drag our honor down
I wonder which one of us is to blame?

Your nearness makes me tremble with desire
Your ruby red lips set my soul aflame
But for you I'd be a beggar thief or liar
I wonder which one of us is to blame?

Somehow I can't blame myself
Although I guess I should
And I can't place the blame on you
I would have if I could.

I wonder which one of us is to blame?...
