

I'll Be Good To You

Bobby Brown

I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe
I'll be good

Since the first time we met
I told you how it would be
Gotta lotta friends
That don't mean nothing to me

Don't need this garbage
I'll tell you what I'm gonna do
Baby, you know I love you
I'll be good to you

I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe
I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe

I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe
I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe

Girl, I need you by my side
I need your lovin' all the time
But just try to understand me, read me out
I love you, girl, without a doubt
I'll be good to you yeah, baby

I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe
I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe
I'll be good

Girl when you're near me, I shiver and shake
And when your body's next to mine
It makes me want, it makes me wanna break
Oh, I'll be good, yes I'll be good

I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe
I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe

Don't you know that I'll be good, girl?
Don't you know I'll be good, girl?
Because I love you and I squeeze you
And I like to have your love, yeah

I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe
I'll be good to you girl
I'll be good to you babe
I'll be good
