

Where Is the One

Bobby Darin

Where is the one
Who'll end this search I'm making...
Where is the one
Who'll change my dream to waking...
Beyond some far off secret door
There's my love
There's my life in store

The journey is long
Much longer than I reckon
In any throng I'd know her in a second
Some lucky day I'm bound to find her
And when I do
I'll find love

The journey is long
Much longer than I reckon
In any throng I'd know her in a second
Some lucky day I'm bound to find her
And when I do
I'll find love
