

Who Can I Count On

Bobby Darin

Who can I count on, if I can't count on you?
I never counted on you makin' me blue
They say your a runnin' 'round with somebody new
Tell me, who can I count on, if I can't count on you?

I thought I held a precious key to Heaven
Your love was sweet and gentle at the start
But now I feel that I can't go on livin'
If livin' means that we must live apart

Who can I count on, if I can't count on you?
I never counted on you makin' me blue
They say your a runnin' 'round with somebody new
Now, who can I count on, if I can't count on you?

You know, the door to happiness was almost open
Just one more step or two, you know, and I'd be in
Then all at once the vows you made were broken
And the door to happiness was closed again

Who can I count on, if I can't count on you?
There goes my happiness and here comes the blues
I can't convince myself that we're really thru
Now, who can I count on, if I can't count on you?

Who can I count on, if I can't count on you?
Who can I count on, if I can't count on you?
